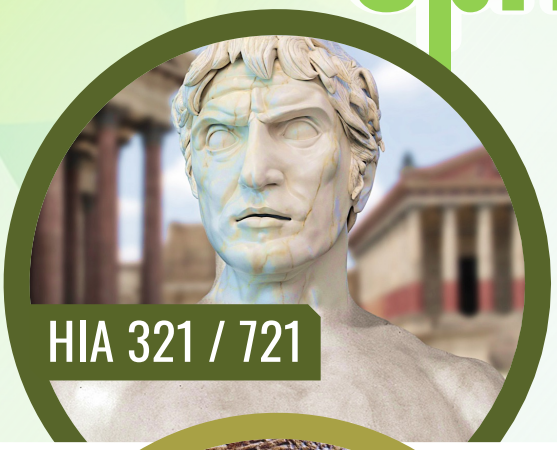
Ancient History
Spring 2027



History of Ancient Rome

The foundation and development of the Roman state, including the rise and decline of the Republic and Empire, with emphasis on its political, economic, social, and cultural achievements.

HYBRID • Thurs 6:00–7:15 p.m. Prof. Wilson Wr/Res Int

Women in Antiquity

Examination of the image, role, and status of women in Ancient Greek, Ancient Roman, and other societies as seen through the important literary works of antiquity.

ONLINE SYNCH • Tues 6:00–8:40 p.m. Prof. Wilson Wr/Res Int

Classical Myth and Society

A comparison of the origins and development of classical mythology and heroic legend as religious beliefs, their relation to other mythologies, and their adaptation in literature and art from Hesiod and Homer through the present.

HYBRID • Fri 12–1:15 p.m. Prof. Marianetti Wr Int

Civilizations of the Ancient World

A survey of the Mediterranean world, tracing the development of civilization from Mesopotamia and Egypt to ancient Greek City-States and the dominion of Rome.

HYBRID • Thurs 3:00–4:15 p.m. Prof. Wilson