

The Book of Esther

Brenda Marisol Rodriguez Aguilar

1

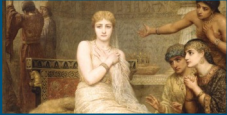

Main Characters

Queen Esther	Mordacai	Ahasuerus (Xerxes)	Haman
Jewish Queen to Persian King	Esther's uncle (Took her as his daughter) Jewish.	King of Persian (Reigned 486-465 BCE)	Son of Hammedatha the Agagite

2

Characters

Vashti - Queen of Persian King before Esther

3

Chapter 1

Story started with 2 Banquet feast thrown by the King of Persia (lasted 187 days) so he can display wealth of the glory of his kingdom.

The king request his wife Vashti to appear at the party, she refuses. (Show her beauty and good appearance)

Decree "Let all men be masters fo their own homes"

4

Chapter 2

-Seek for a beautythe king young women, virgins, of good appearance.

-Mordacai took Esther to the house of the king.

-The king choosed Esther to became the new Queen.

-Mordacai heard a threat towards the King informed Esther and Esther to the King in name of Mordacai (recognized for the king)

5

Chapter 3

-Haman is presented (set in throne by the King). Haman requested all people to knee before him but Mordacai deny it.

-Haman full of fury persuade the King to decreete to kill of the Jews.

-Haman set a date to aniquilar Jews by rolling a dice (Pur in Hebrew)

6

Chapter 4

-Esther and Mordacai made plan to reveled Esther identity as Jew to the King to reverse the decree.

-Approaching the King without a royal request is act of worthy of death.

7

Chapter 5

-Esther throw her first Banquet for the King and Haman. She wanted to attend her other banquete next day.

-Mordacai was at the gate of the King fand Haman saw him and fill him with fury.

-Haman prepare the tree where he intended to hang Mordacai.

8

Chapter 6

-The King request to to bring in the scroll of memorials of the chronicles, and they are read before the King. He heard about how Mordacai saved king's life.

-Haman request Mordacai execution but the King asked Haman to honor Mordacai public for saving his life (Lead Mordacai in a horse for everyone to praise him).

9

Chapter 7

- Esther throw the 2nd Baquete to the King and Haman.
- Esther reveled her identity as Jewish and told the King about the Haman decree to kill all the Jews.
- The King ordered to hang Haman in the tree that he prepared for Mordacai.

10

Chapter 8

- Eshter and Mordacai had set Haman's house.
- Eshter request the King to bring back the letters were decree to kill the Jews.
- The King let her write letters and proclaim to fight against anyone who want to kill the Jews. (Defen themselves)

11

Chapter 9 & 10

- The Jews rule over those who hating them.
- Jews had killed Haman family.
- Esther request another day for the Jews to kill people who once plotted agains them around the kingdom.
- Mordacai is elevated at the second to the King Ahasuerus, and a great man of the Jews.

12

Conclusion

I think the author want to show the bravery, cleverness and the sense of community and the faith of the Jews towards adversity.

Even when God is not mentioned it their faith move the Jews to survive and how God's help in the darkest moments.

Also highlithed the importance of women in the religion by portaying Esther as the hero.

Celebration of Purim.
