

Grading

Your overall course grade will come from a combination of weekly reading responses, written essays, and an in-class exam.

Your grade for the course will be determined from the following:

Attendance, Responses, and Quizzes 20%

Each week there will be

- attendance taken at class meetings, 5%
- a required online post in response to a primary source, and 5%
- a short, 5-minute in-class quiz. 10%

Quizzes are based on the assigned readings. Note: In-class quizzes take place at the start of our class meetings and are not made up, so it is important to arrive on time and prepared.

Presentations 15%

You'll give two in-class presentations on a source:

- one on one of the assigned primary sources, and 7½%
- one on one of the assigned secondary sources. 7½%

A written version is due a week after your presentation.

Written Assignments 35%

There will be

- a 3-to-4 page essay on images of the ancient world, and 10%
- a 6-to-8 page term paper using evidence to take a position on a research topic of your choice relating to gender in the ancient world. 25%

Exam 30%

For this course there will be an end-of-term in-class final exam.
