

Lesson 3: Problem solving

In your classes (and beyond) you are going to be called to solve problems.

One of the responsibilities of a scholar- and you are a scholar the moment you chose to devote yourself and years of your life to studying here at Lehman- is to make decisions in a methodical (planned with steps) way relying on evidence (what others have learned through study and research).

Read through and think about each of the following:

- "Problem-solving" from OpenStax College Success
<https://openstax.org/books/college-success/pages/7-5-problem-solving>